DEEB, PETRAKIS, BLUM & MURPHY'S STEPHEN FRISHBERG ELECTED

FIRST VICE PRESIDENT OF GOLD SLIPPER CLUB AND CHARITIES

(Philadelphia, PA., June 25, 2010) – Stephen H. Frishberg, a partner at the law firm of Deeb, Petrakis, Blum & Murphy, P.C., has been elected first vice president of the Golden Slipper Club and Charities of Philadelphia. Mr. Frishberg also serves as President of the Golden Slipper Senior Center.

“The Golden Slipper Club and Charities has a longstanding tradition of making a positive difference in the lives of children and seniors in need,” said Mr. Frishberg. “I am honored to help steward the organization at a time of significant community need.”

Founded in 1922, Golden Slipper Club & Charities (goldenslipperclub.org) is a unique, multi-service agency comprised of three entities: a camp for deserving children in the Poconos; a short- and long-term rehabilitation and nursing care facility in Northeast Philadelphia; and a senior center in the Balwynne Park section of Philadelphia. Golden Slipper also provides a wide range of direct community services, including college scholarships, emergency assistance to families in need, and educational, social, and cultural opportunities for area seniors.

Mr. Frishberg practices in the area of estate planning and administration, corporate, transactional, real estate and tax planning, and is a frequent speaker on matters of estate planning.

An active member of the community, Mr. Frishberg is a member of the Montgomery Country Bar Association, and has served as Chair of the Orphans' Court Rules Committee and Chair of the Probate and Tax Section. He is also a Board Member of the Philadelphia Estate Planning Council and recipient of their 2003 Mordecai Gerson Meritorious Service Award. In addition, Mr. Frishberg is a member of the Board of Trustees of the Jewish Community Centers of Greater Philadelphia, the Board of Directors of The Wellness Community, where he serves as their legal counsel, and the President of the Philadelphia Jewish Sports Hall of Fame.
